

News

Authors

Contact

Series

Crush Wolfinski

was raised in Gray stones, in New York. He has, a huge and I mean HUGE family. He is an orange dhole and enjoys writing children's books. His hobbies include writing of course, playing golf, animating, drawing, cooking, and photographing. He is not married yet and has no kids but is still searching for a mate that will love him for him and not just his money. Hopefully this will happen when he overcomes his shyness.

Muquesko Toksis

was born in the Wisconsin Dells, in America. He is a blue flying rattlesnake. He lived there with his wife Ally (a crocodile) and his son Crocky (also a crocodile.) One tragic day struck when somebody kidnapped his wife and child. Muquesko then moved to Huqworld, located in Illinois, thank to Chubskey and Master Imono's help they found Muquesko's son. He's still in search for his wife. It was Chubskey that got him into writing and drawing. Now Muquesko writes childrens books with Crush Canidae.